

THE PRETTY LITTLES FAIRWEATHER EP

Relatively new to the local musical scene, Melbourne four piece The Pretty Littles produce a rumbling scuzzy blues-rock sound that gleans from the likes of Black Rebel Motorcycle Club, The White Stripes, Vasco Era, The Mess Hall and other similar bands who have been their biggest influences on their newest EP release Fairweather.

The five tracks on The Pretty Littles Fairweather EP show off their talents and the true diversity of the group.....tracks like Cowboys & Indians explores them flexing their rock n roll muscle, meanwhile there is sheer contrast in tracks such as Two Cents, a more melodic and tender sound where they take the foot off the gas and delve into the more softer shades of their musical palette, proving this band is not just a one-trick rock pony.

The band comprises of frontman Jack Parsons, whose vocals both pack a right royal punch but conversely taper off where necessary, the drumming powerhouse that is Will Batrouney, dexterous guitarist Simon Boyd and Jono Gooley who provides the bass backbone of their sound. Together they emanate a healthy dose of pulsating blues flavored rock n roll, retaining just enough of the sing-a-long choruses and tasty melodies.

Recorded in only two and a half days at Melbourne's Sound Park studios, the band enlisted Big Scary front man Tom Iansek to produce it. Having supported the likes of Children Collide, The Vasco Era, The Panda Band, The Delta Riggs, The Salvadors, DZ Deathrays even Jo Jo Zep and The Falcons reunion show at The Forum, the live arena is where The Pretty Littles really excel.

"Frontman, Jack Parsons wails away as if he's been gargling dirt, whilst a tag-team of earth-shaking riff-age and scratchy strum-alongs set the tone." Deaf Ambitions

"The Pretty Littles' brand of straight-up rock was enthusiastic and infectious" Fasterlouder.com

"The Pretty Littles. A cohesive unit of indie rock, they were a lift in pace and energy. Catchy tunes and a solid performance ensured they got the audience in the right groove for the final band of the night" SYN FM

For more information go to :
www.facebook.com/theprettylittles

The Pretty Littles are available for interviews / live to airs / reviews & any other press opportunities

Please contact Lou Ridsdale from Lance Rock Publicity if you would like to arrange an interview, or require any further information.

Lou Ridsdale
Lance Rock Publicity
lou@lancerock.com.au
0410 436 660

