

THE BLACK SEEDS (NZ)

ANNOUNCE QLD TOUR & FESTIVAL SHOWS

Already confirmed to perform at the Splendour In The Grass and Reggaetown Festivals, New Zealand's reggae-soul heavyweights, The Black Seeds have announced two extra Australian dates – at the Coolangatta Hotel (Sat 30th July), and The Zoo in Brisbane (September 9th)

Having spent the last few months holed up in their Wellington-based studio, the band will pack up their gear and head to Queensland to test-drive brand new material from the forthcoming new album, as well as to play some old favourites.

“We have been working really hard on our next (5th) studio album for a while now” says vocalist & guitarist Barnaby Weir, “Our new jams are sounding great and we can't wait to take them to the stage for everyone to hear”.

Friday 29th July sees The Black Seeds perform at the legendary Splendour In the Grass festival alongside acts at, such as Coldplay, and Kanye West, before headlining their own show at the Coolangatta Hotel on Sat 30th July.

The band then head back across the Tasman in early September for their own headline show at The Zoo in Brisbane on September 9th, and finishing at the Reggaetown Festival in Cairns' on Sept 10th for what will be their first North Queensland appearance.
