

THE PICTURE BOX ORCHESTRA THE EVELYN, FITZROY WEDNESDAY 28TH SEPTEMBER

Lead by internationally acclaimed composer, producer and violinist Alies Sluiter, The Picture Box Orchestra produce hypnotic, evocative and exquisite music, a virtual cornucopia of sounds from around the world. Combining Indian Classical techniques with Jazz, Hip-Hop and Western Classical influences it's a curious melting pot of musical genres featuring world class performers from Pakistan, India, Melbourne and The United Kingdom. Playing a rare gig in Melbourne on Wednesday 28th September, make sure you catch The Picture Box Orchestra at The Evelyn Hotel, Fitzroy.

Mostly known for her film and television scores and having worked with artists such as Nitin Sawhney, Akram Khan, Hugh Jackman, David Helfgott, Natalie Imbruglia, Sidi Larbi Cherkaoui and The Shaolin Monks of China, Alies began The Picture Box Orchestra as a side project in 2008. She has composed for films, documentaries, several series for CNN and numerous commissioned works for television (CNN, SBS and Foxtel) theatre and dance productions.

Their debut album in 2011 features the talents of Granaz Moussavi (Iran), Faheem Mazhar (UK/Pakistan) and Jacqueline Gawler (Australia) as well as a whole host of other fine talent. Each of the musicians brings something unique from their own backgrounds to the project. Individually these artists have extraordinary careers and are heralded for their work. Collectively they raise the bar and their music becomes another thing entirely. Wednesday 28th of September will see The Evelyn Hotel, Fitzroy host these remarkable musicians The Picture Box Orchestra. Not to be missed.
