

RED ROCKETS OF BORNEO HAM EP

It's easy to tell that Melbourne five piece Red Rockets of Borneo wore their rock and roll hearts on their sleeves during the recording of their four track EP entitled Ham. They have a no bull approach to their musical offerings, and you can just tell they are smiling whilst doing it. Ham is the follow up to last years critically acclaimed self-titled CD. Their live show consists of them delivering propelling punchy, heat-seeking, guitar-driven rock missiles in rapid-fire succession at their audience. Watching them, you can tell they get a real kick out of it too.

Dirty swirling snippets of rockabilly and fifth-gear blistering machine-gun rock'n'racket, accompanied with seductively smooth vocals which twist to helium squealing fever pitch when necessary Red Rockets of Borneo have penned four songs of adrenaline riddled mirth on this release. All are delivered with a pleasant breakneck urgency that makes you sit up in your seat and demand to be listened to.

Sounding like the bastard love-child of At The Drive In, The Cramps, Sonic Youth, White Stripes, Screamin' J. Hawkins, The Stooges, Dead Kennedys, Link Wray and The Loved Ones, played by a gang of biker guitarists Red Rockets of Borneo formed almost two years ago but in that short time they have been playing to appreciative crowds around Melbourne and also performed at last year's Reclink Community Cup alongside You Am I and Tumbleweed. The band comprises of James Deane on guitar, James Feros on guitar, Paul Instance on drums, Kat Karvess on bass and Jean Philippe Lopez on lead vocals.

Red Rockets of Borneo Ham EP is available in limited edition smokin' hot custom made 4GB USB sticks at their gigs, via iTunes or digital download at www.redrocketsofborneo.bandcamp.com

"A rocking and rolling punk outfit drawing on rockabilly roots with some inspiration from 60s and 70s guitar-based bands" InPress

"Red Rockets of Borneo debut album slaps you in the face with its aural explosion of manic rock and roll, with its heady mix of swampy guitars and bluesy rhythm the album explodes..." Dwarf Website
