ALBUM LAUNCH @ THE EMPRESS HOTEL, NTH FITZROY

FRIDAY 30TH MARCH

Melbourne four-piece band Waverley are getting ready to strap in for a night of explosive rock at the launch for their debut album Challenger at The Empress Hotel on Friday 30th March with supports from G-Pop and Green Green Green.

Fusing the immediacy of Australian punk-rock with the ferocity of grunge, Waverley deliver tight, energetic music that positively buzzes. The band comprises of Darius Papak on vocals/guitar, Daniel Papak on guitar/vocals, Satoshi Sanada on bass /vocals and Lee Daniel on drums.

2011 was a busy and heavily productive year for the band. They gigged relentlessly around Melbourne, released two singles Where Were You and Paper Walls and living out their D.I.Y ethic they shot an independent video for both songs. Where Were You features the band in gritty video clip mode which suits the tone of the song to a tee. Paper Walls, a story of a heart-broken girl wandering through the streets of Melbourne is their most recent clip. Both clips have been aired on ABCTV's Rage. The band have also shot another video clip for an upcoming album track Feeling Nothing. Not one to rest on their laurels they also recorded their upcoming album Challenger.

After only six months of gigging, at an incendiary set at The Brunswick Hotel, Waverley were spotted by audio producer Craig Harnath (Jet, Franz Ferdinand, Motor Ace) who hustled the band back to mission control at Hothouse Audio where he and Jez Giddings captured their burning rock sound of their debut CD and Challenger was born.

2012 is already shaping up to be a fruitful year for Waverley, with plans afoot to tour the country promoting the Challenger album, and no doubt winning musical hearts everywhere they go.

Don't miss Waverley as they launch their Challenger album and raise a rock and roll storm with their fun high energy grunge sound at The Empress Hotel on Friday 30th March.
