THE FIRETREE & OLLIE BROWN TOUR JAN, FEB & MARCH 2012 : NSW, ACT, VIC & SA

Touring nationally in a double headline bill over the first three months of 2012 are NSW-based musical comrades The Firetree along with Ollie Brown in what will be a showcase of folk filled acoustic nights of song by two of Australia's finest rising artists.

The Firetree is the perfect accompaniment to a chilled out summers evening, Their sumptuous and intoxicating sounds are centered around the vocals of Dale Buchan and Josephine Cubis, who are an indie pop folk group hailing from Byron Bay. Pairing sublime harmonies and contrasting, yet complimentary vocals with superb pop songwriting, the duo have created an undeniably unique indie sound. Forming in 2010 The Firetree have so far released a debut EP 'The Space Between' in November 2010, as well as their 'Vega' EP in May 2011.

Ollie Brown who has just been voted 'Australia's Best Busker' in a competition run by Vox Magazine & MX Newspaper, is a much travelled musician who experiments with a variety of different genres colouring each song with it's own identity. You'll hear echoes of Ryan Adams and James Taylor at a crossroads where David Gray meets John Mayer. Music has always been in Ollie's veins. From an early age he played the tuba and trombone, and expanding on his classical training he branched out into folk music honing his craft busking around the world.
