

PBS 106.7 FM 2009 LIVE MUSIC WEEK THE EASEY STREET SESSIONS

To celebrate PBS 106.7FM's Live Music Week, the Melbourne-based community radio station will be serving up a whole week of live music across their programming from 7th December until 13th December. There will be an outstanding number of bands, over 60 to be exact, performing live in the studios across all seven days. The Easey Street Sessions, usually a weekly event, will be expanded to feature on every one of the week's drive time programmes at 6pm, presenting a smorgasbord of musical talent.

Tune in to hear :

- On Monday 7th December, Melbourne rock'n'roll band aficionados Legends Of Motorsport join Firewater in the PBS studios;
- On Tuesday 8th December, check out former Spiderbait one-man musical powerhouse – Kram during Fang It!
- Wednesday 9th December, sees USA's garage psych rockabilly kid rockers Thee Oh Sees join City Slang
- Thursday 10th December; tripped out, bluesy rock n roll eight-piece The Thod whip up a storm on Fight The Good Fight
- and on Friday 11th, the garage rock awesomeness of The UV Race features during Stone Love

Also, kicking off Live Music Week and taking place on 6th Sunday December is the PBS Live Music Week Launch at The Corner Hotel, Richmond from 1pm – 7pm. Entrance via gold coin donation.

Come along and witness some incredibly diverse live music during this family-friendly day where, set to grace The Corner Hotel stage, will be Polo Club; Diafrix; Warped; Kylie Auldist; Geoff Achison; Melbourne Mass Gospel Choir; Richi Madan and His Bollywood Dancers; and The PBS Jazz Allstars featuring Paul Williamson.

Come and commemorate the impressive live music scene we have here in Melbourne, compliments of PBS 106.7FM or, for those who can't be there, the Live Music Week Launch will also be broadcast via 106.7FM throughout the day and streamed on www.pbs.org.au

Celebrating the rich diversity of musical offerings that the station offers to their audience 24/7 year round, Live Music Week encapsulates PBS 106.7FM's dedication. Make sure you tune into PBS 106.7FM during Live Music Week and celebrate live music with them.
